Saluting and Supporting Those Who Have Served

The Edgar County Community Foundation is pleased to assist the Paris American Legion Post 211 in its current project to upgrade the Post Home to current standards as an attractive venue for Post 211 and public activities. Please join us and add your support for our county veterans. Pictured with the Foundation's check are, front row from left, Foundation directors Rob Anderson and Ned Jenison; construction project manager Donnie Furry, Post 211 past commander King Sutton, and Foundation director Bob Morris; second row, Foundation director Tom Hebermehl, Foundation development manager Warren Sperry, Post 211 Commander Jim Robison, Foundation director Harry Frost, and Foundation board president Brad Tucker.
