

Bell family adds support to PHS band uniforms

A major donation to the Paris High School Marching Tigers band uniform fund has been received from the extended Patrick and Susan Bell family. Present for the announcement were, from left:

At the presentation, Patrick Bell stated "Our sons, Jousha, Brandon, and Nathan as well as our daughter-in-law Amanda and her sister Erica Whittington all benefited from participation from the Paris High School Marching Tiger Band. Assisting with the purchase of the new uniforms for the Marching Band is a cause we are pleased to support. Band Director, Dr. Kevin Pruiett, and his brother, Sean were students of Susan in grade school. Warren Sperry's prior service as Band Director and current work as Development Manager of the Edgar County Community Foundation increase our allegiance to the Marching Band. It is our privilege to contribute to an already outstanding program".
